CHANGES TO CONTRACT

The Director of the Agency may, at any time, by written notification to Vendor, and without notice to any known guarantor or surety, make changes within the general scope of services to be performed under the contract. If any such changes cause an increase or decrease in the cost of, or the time required for performance of, this contract, an equitable adjustment may be made in the contract price, or period of performance, or both, and the contract will be modified in writing accordingly. Any claim by Vendor for adjustment under this clause must be asserted within thirty (30) calendar days from the date of receipt by Vendor of the notice of the change; provided, the Director of the Agency may, if the Director decides that the facts justify each action, receive and act upon such claim asserted at any time prior to final payment under the contract. Failure to agree to any adjustment will be a dispute concerning a question of fact within the meaning of the “Dispute” section under this contract. However, nothing in this clause excuses Vendor from proceeding with the contract as changed.

CONFIDENTIALITY/SAFEGUARDING OF INFORMATION

The Vendor will not use or disclose any information concerning the Agency, the Agency’s business affairs, relations with their clientele and employees, member or participant data, or information that may be classified as confidential, for any purpose not directly connected with the administration of this contract, except with prior written consent of the Agency, or as may be required by law.

If Agency and Vendor mutually agree that confidential information and data to be provided is necessary to the performance of the contract, Agency will transfer the confidential information and data to the Vendor. All data transferred by electronic means will be encrypted or password protected, or both.

Confidential information and data includes, but is not limited to, names, addresses, Social Security numbers, e-mail addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, individual pension-related information, driver’s license numbers, personnel information, bank information, credit or debit card information, agency security data, or information identifiable to an individual that relates to any of these types of information, any individual identifiable financial information, or any information required to be kept confidential pursuant to RCW 42.56.590. The Agency will consider a force majeure with respect to the notification process. Vendor will assist the Agency with all investigatory efforts concerning a loss of data, unauthorized access to data, or a breach of confidentiality. Failure to promptly notify or assist the Agency may be considered a breach of this provision.

Notwithstanding any determination by the Executive Ethics Board or other tribunal, the Agency may, in its sole discretion, by written notice to the Vendor terminate this contract if it is found after due notice and examination by the Agent that there is a violation of the Ethics in Public Service Act, chapter 42.52 RCW; or any similar statute involving the Vendor in the procurement of, or performance under this contract.
In the event this contract is terminated as provided above, the Agency will be entitled to pursue the same remedies against the Vendor as it could pursue in the event of a breach of the contract by the Vendor. The rights and remedies of the Agency provided for in this clause will not be exclusive and are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law. The existence of facts upon which the Agent makes any determination under this clause will be an issue and may be reviewed as provided in the “Disputes” clause of this contract.

COVENANT AGAINST CONTINGENT FEES

The Vendor warrants that no person or selling agent has been employed or retained to solicit or secure this contract upon an agreement or understanding for a commission, percentage, brokerage or contingent fee, excepting bona fide employees or bona fide established agents maintained by the Vendor for securing business.

The Agency will have the right, in the event of breach of this clause by the Vendor, to annul this contract without liability or, in its discretion, to deduct from the contract price or consideration or recover by other means the full amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage or contingent fee.

3. The Agent will review the written statements and reply in writing to both parties within ten (10) business days. The Agent may extend this period if necessary by notifying the parties.

4. The parties agree that this dispute process will precede any action in a judicial or quasi-judicial tribunal.

Nothing in this contract will be construed to limit the parties’ choice of a mutually acceptable Alternative Dispute Resolution method in addition to the dispute resolution procedure outlined above.

Any breach of this provision may result in termination of the contract and the demand for return of all personal information. The Vendor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Agency for any damages related to the Vendor’s unauthorized use of personal information or the loss of Agency’s confidential information and data.

Should any unauthorized use, disclosure, modification, or loss occur, Vendor will notify the Agency’s Contract Manager as soon as practical but no more than four (4) hours from notice of unauthorized use, disclosure, modification, loss, or any other breach of privacy. RIGHTS AND REMEDIES
The rights and remedies of the Department provided in this Contract shall not be exclusive and are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law.

TAXES
All payments accrued because of payroll taxes, unemployment contributions, any other taxes, insurance or other expenses for the Vendor or its staff will be the sole responsibility of the Vendor.

TERMINATION FOR CAUSE
In the event the Agency determines the Vendor has failed to comply with the conditions of this contract in a timely manner, or the Vendor’s software performance falls below prevailing industry standards, the Agency has the right to suspend or terminate this contract.

Before suspending or terminating the contract, the Agency will notify the Vendor in writing of the need to take corrective action and allow an opportunity to cure. The timeframe for curing will be determined by the Agency by reasonably weighing several factors relevant to the default which will include, but not be limited to: how critical performance failure rectification is to the Agency operations; lead-time afforded to the Vendor to complete the performance or assignment in the first instance; repetition, if any, of the particular performance default; accumulation in number, if any, of other performance defaults which the Vendor has timely cured; and, attribution of the default to willful disregard or carelessness on the part of the Vendor. If corrective action is not taken within the timeframe established by the Agency. the contract may be terminated or suspended.

In the event of termination or suspension, the Vendor will be liable for damages as authorized by law including, but not limited to, any cost difference between the original contract and the replacement or cover contract and all administrative costs directly related to the replacement contract, e.g., cost of the competitive bidding, mailing, advertising and staff time.

A termination will be deemed a “Termination for Convenience” if it is determined that the Vendor: (1) was not in default; or (2) failure to perform was outside of his or her control, fault, or negligence. The rights and remedies of the Agency provided in this contract are not exclusive and are, in addition to any other rights and remedies, provided by law.

TERMINATION FOR CONVENIENCE

Except as otherwise provided in this contract, the Agency or Vendor may, by one hundred eighty (180) days written notice, beginning on the second day after the mailing, terminate this contract, in whole or in part. If this contract is so terminated, the Agency will be liable only for payment required under the terms of this contract for services rendered or goods delivered prior to the effective date of termination.

WAIVER

Waiver of any default or breach will not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent default or breach. Any waiver will not be construed to be a modification of the terms of this contract unless stated to be such in writing and signed by authorized representative of the Agency.
