November 5, 2020

Dear Retiree,

In response to the coronavirus pandemic, Governor Jay Inslee issued a proclamation waiving some return-to-work restrictions from April 1 through July 1, 2020. The proclamation allowed certain retirees to work without suspension of pension benefits. Now that the proclamation has expired, previously mandated return-to-work rules apply.

DRS systems required updates so hours worked from April 1 to June 30 would not apply to affected retirees' annual return-to-work total. Up to eight hours worked in July will not apply either. Those changes have been made, and no action on your part is required.

You may review your adjusted hours by logging into or signing up for your online account at <https://www.drs.wa.gov/oaa/>.

If you have questions about this letter, please contact the Department of Retirement Systems at 800-547-6657 ext. 47966 or drs.rrtw@drs.wa.gov.

Sincerely,

Department of Retirement Systems
